

MICHIGAN STATE ASSOCIATION OF PARLIAMENTARIANS
OF THE
National Association of Parliamentarians®
BYLAWS

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this organization shall be MICHIGAN STATE ASSOCIATION OF PARLIAMENTARIANS, hereinafter known as MSAP, a constituent division of the National Association of Parliamentarians® hereinafter known as NAP.

ARTICLE II OBJECT

The object and purpose of this association, organized as a non-profit association within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, for educational, scientific, literary, and professional purposes of studying, teaching, promoting, and disseminating the philosophy and principles underlying the rules of deliberative assemblies shall be:

- to promote the purposes and programs of NAP;
- to further the growing interest in parliamentary rules in both public and private schools on all levels;
- to bring into closer cooperation the parliamentarians of the state;
- to inculcate and uphold the general principles of obedience to law and
- to lend moral aid and strength to the parliamentary activities of its members.

ARTICLE III
MEMBERS

Section 1. Qualifications. To be eligible for regular membership in MSAP, a person must be a member in good standing of NAP.

Section 2. Classification.

A. Primary Members. Primary members are members listed at NAP headquarters for representative purposes.

1. Unit Members. Members who belong to an MSAP unit.
2. Members-at-Large. Members who do not belong to an MSAP unit.

B. Affiliate Members. Affiliate members are members whose primary membership is in another state or province association. They shall not serve as delegates or alternates from MSAP to conventions of NAP but shall have other rights and duties of MSAP membership.

C. Honorary Members. Honorary members are members whose membership has been granted by three-fourths (3/4) vote by ballot at any MSAP meeting following the signed recommendation of at least two (2) MSAP members and with the approval of the board of directors. They shall be exempt from dues to MSAP and, as a member of NAP, have full privileges or, as a non-member of NAP, the right to debate without the right to make motions or vote at membership meetings of MSAP.

D. Life Members. Life members are members who paid the prescribed one-time amount that entitled them to be lifetime members of MSAP exempt from any further payment of MSAP dues. They shall, as a member of NAP, have all the rights and duties of membership in MSAP or, as a non-member of NAP, have full rights and duties of membership except those as denied by NAP.

E. Provisionals. Provisionals are individuals who are preparing for NAP membership. Provisionals are not NAP members and are not counted for the purpose of determining the number of delegates to which an association or unit is entitled at NAP conventions. As a non-member of NAP, they shall have the right to debate without the right to make motions or vote at membership meetings of MSAP.

Section 3. Good Standing. A member in good standing is one whose current NAP and MSAP dues are paid and one who complies with the provisions of the NAP Articles of Incorporation/Agreement and Bylaws and MSAP Bylaws and Standing Rules.

Section 4. Resignation, Reinstatement, Forfeiture.

A. Resignation. A member in good standing who wishes to resign shall send a letter of resignation to NAP and MSAP before March 1 of the year in which the resignation is to become effective.

B. Reinstatement. Provided all NAP requirements are met, a former member in good standing who applies for reinstatement within two years of resignation as in Section 4A above may be reinstated upon payment of current dues.

C. Forfeiture. A former member who forfeited membership for nonpayment of NAP or MSAP dues may be reinstated upon compliance with NAP requirements and upon payment of current MSAP dues.
